

IN THE MATTER OF THE POLICE ACT, R.S.B.C. 1996, C. 267

AND

IN THE MATTER OF THE PUBLIC HEARING INTO THE COMPLAINT
AGAINST CONSTABLE STEPHEN TODD
OF THE VANCOUVER POLICE DEPARTMENT

ADDENDUM TO NOTICE OF ADJUDICATOR'S DISPOSITION

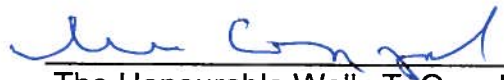

TO: Constable Stephen Todd, Vancouver Police Department

AND TO: M. Kevin Woodall, Counsel for Stephen Todd

AND TO : Michael Tammen, Q.C., Public Hearing Counsel

On March 12, 2015, I rendered a Decision with respect to the matter involving Constable Stephen Todd of the VPD. In my reasons, I was critical of the conduct of three police officers who interviewed and detained Constable Todd. The officers whose conduct I criticized were not members of the VPD. The sole involvement of the VPD officers related to making Constable Todd available to the three officers who were investigating his conduct. It was their duty to make Constable Todd available. They had no other dealings with Constable Todd. They took no part in either the interviews or the detention of Constable Todd.

I trust this Addendum clarifies any ambiguities that may have arisen from my original reasons.

The Honourable Wally T. Oppal, Q.C.
