Public Hearing for Vancouver Police officers, Constable Eric Ludeman and Constable Neil Logan

Victoria - The decision for the Public Hearing into the misconduct allegations against Constables Eric Ludeman and Neil Logan of the Vancouver Police Department will resume on Wednesday February 18, 2021, starting at 9:30 am.

Due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the hearing will take place virtually. The hearing will be streamed live through our OPCC website here: <https://opcc.bc.ca/media-room/live-hearings/>

About the OPCC and Public Hearings:

- The Police Complaint Commissioner is a civilian, independent Officer of the Legislature overseeing complaints, investigations and discipline involving municipal police in British Columbia. For more on the OPCC, visit: <https://opcc.bc.ca/about-us/>
- Following a disciplinary process, the Police Complaint Commissioner can order a Public Hearing if there is a reasonable basis to believe that the decision of the Discipline Authority is incorrect or it is in the public interest to review the matter.
- Retired judges sit as adjudicators in Public Hearings. They review evidence, hear sworn testimony, and arrive at a decision of whether there is misconduct and, if so, determine the corrective or disciplinary measures.
- The Adjudicator's decision in a Public Hearing is final and conclusive.
