About the OPCC and Public Hearings:

- The Police Complaint commissioner is a civilian, independent Officer of the Legislature overseeing complaints, investigations and discipline involving municipal police in British Columbia. For more on the OPCC, visit <https://opcc.bc.ca/about-us/>
- A public hearing is not limited to the evidence and issues canvassed at the discipline proceeding.
- At a public hearing, independent public hearing counsel is appointed to present to the Adjudicator the case relative to the allegations of misconduct. The Police Complaint Commissioner can also appear at the public hearing through Commission counsel.
- A retired judge is appointed to sit as the Adjudicator and review the evidence, hear sworn testimony, and arrive at a decision as to whether there is misconduct and, if necessary, determine the corrective and/or disciplinary measures to be imposed. The appointed retired judge can also make recommendations to the Chief Constable or
